Once again, songwriter Wyndi Harp and singer Kelly Nolf have created a delightful Christmas project which has something for everyone; country pop, bluegrass/Americana with a little blues and even a hint of "Wrap". 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Pop, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Kelly Nolf moved to Nashville from Michigan in 1980 with her singing family, where they performed regularly at the Opryland Hotel. Kelly is a singer, songwriter and has always been referred to as "the other Wynonna". It only seemed natural when Kelly and Wyndi met in 2000 at the Stardust Theatre in Nashville, TN that they would quickly fill the part as "The Judds" in the Tribute to the Stars Show. Wyndi and Kelly both take their rolls seriously with accurate Judd vocals, humor and costumes. They have quickly become an audience favorite. The duo refers to themselves as "the other Judds" and once you see them in action you'll see why people take a double look. Wyndi Harp is a native Texan and moved to Nashville in 1989 to pursue a songwriting career. She has had many independent cuts and is still actively writing. Ever since The Judds have been in the spotlight she has been mistaken for Naomi Judd. After auditioning for the part of Naomi at the Stardust Theatre in August of 1999, she has been a Judd Impersonator. She's traveled with Opryland Entertainment promoting the show at different venues and has performed at conventions, casinos and private parties. Wyndi is thankful for the opportunity to entertain with good clean fun! Currently, Kelly and Wyndi perform all across the country at conventions, festivals, casinos and special events. Kelly Wyndi attribute their success with "The Judds Tribute Show" to the Judds themselves because people miss their music and witty humor. For a little while people get to experience Naomi Wynonna through "the other Judds." "Family Christmas Card" marks the collaborative debut effort of Kelly and Wyndi outside their roles as "Wynonna Naomi". Showcasing the powerful, emotionally charged songs of Wyndi Harp and the stellar vocal performance of Kelly Nolf, anyone who is a fan of the marriage of great singers to classic songs is sure to find a bounty of treasures on this project. The project was produced by Kimo Forrest of John Michael Montgomery's band and Paul Martin, formerly with Exile. Their ears for surrounding great lyrics and great melodies with absolutely mesmerizing arrangements is unmatched in Nashville. "Family Christmas Card" has been a labor of love for both Wyndi and Kelly and you cannot help but be affected mentally, spiritually, and emotionally by this outstanding collection of perfectly crafted and infectious performed songs.
