Yvette y su Orquesta Mambo Tropical plays Classic Salsa Dance Music. 13 MP3 Songs LATIN: Salsa, JAZZ: Latin Jazz Details: Mambo Tropical, is a non-stop journey through some of the hottest contemporary and classic salsa sounds of our time. Steeped in the rich Afro-Cuban music traditions, and led by the sultry and elegant vocals of Yvette Watts, this collection of powerful and sometimes moving music, is sure to be a favorite of Latin music fans everywhere! Vocalist Yvette Watts has always been passionate about music. Born into a musical family, Yvette starting singing at a young age, and over the years her dynamic and captivating vocal abilities flourished. After impressing several music industry veterans, Yvette was invited to perform on the TV show Buscando Estrellas and won first prize at the Festival de la Cancion Latino Americana. She has toured throughout Europe with the Cuesta College Vocal Jazz Ensemble and studied with Russian opera legend Marina Koshetz as well as with Nela Girolo. After settling in the Bay Area, Yvette teamed up with classically-trained musician Teresa Orozco-Peterson and veteran performer Jim Polizzi to form the foundation which would later evolve into the 11-piece ensemble now known simply as, Yvette Y Su Orquesta Mambo Tropical. After performing non-stop over the past few years, in late 2004, Mambo headed into the studio to begin recording the first tracks of their debut CD, and quickly gained the attention of Latin music legend, Pete Escovedo. Pete was so impressed with the group that he decided to work with the band on the CD as a featured musician. With the new CD now complete, the group is now gearing up for the Spring and Summer concert season, which will include several CD release events in various cities around the US.
