A kidnapped girl. A creepy photographer with a fetish for facials. A statuesque lesbian with a great right jab. A dildo-wearing stuffed lion. All this and more is waiting for two young Midwesterners who find themselves drawn into the vile private world of the Family Strange, a family without morals and without limits. College disk jockey John Lantarnier meets Amy Strange during his late-night jazz show and finds in her the answer to all his fantasies, but when her jealousy causes the end of the relationship, her father steps in with a promise of revenge. Meanwhile, as amateur mystery writer Colleen Drew attempts to root out information about the case of her kidnapped friend, she stumbles upon the weakest link in the kidnappers' conspiracy - a link that will draw Lantarnier in as well. This sex-soaked mystery shows that no one knows what goes on behind closed doors, and that the people who open those doors often find that what's going on behind them is more bizarre than they could have imagined.
