Debby Holiday experienced every aspect of the music industry early on. Her father Jimmy Holiday was a passionate and soulful artist, topping the charts with several of his own singles before going on to co-write hits such as Understanding by Ray Charles and Jackie DeShannon's Put A Little Love In Your Heart. Another standard All I Ever Need Is You, turned out to not only be a top 10 single for Sonny and Cher - but also went on to be a huge country hit for Kenny Rogers and Dottie West. Naturally, this eclectic mix of music strongly influenced Debby's own unique and compelling sound. Debby Holiday has worked with a wide range of today's top songwriters including Jeffrey Steele, Al

Anderson, Marty Frederikson, Billy Steinberg, Erik Bazillian and Clif Magness (Avril Lavigne). In 2003 Debby won over audiences in the juicy role of The Blues Singer in the L.A. production of the award-winning play, The Trials and Tribulations of a Trailer Trash Housewife, written by Del Shores. Debby is now focused on the release of her new maxi-single Dive and her next album titled Half A Mile Away, scheduled for release in July, 2004 on *Nebula 9.
