songwriter, barrelhouse to ballad, blues and jazz, Geanie on piano and vocals, with her all-star band 13 MP3 Songs BLUES: Blues Vocals, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: Born in Ft. Worth, Texas, a childhood move from the the brick Oakcliff neighborhood of Dallas to the outskirts of the east Texas oilfields brought the seven year old red head Geanie Stout close to the musical roots of the blues-jazz tradition that was to become her metier. That and a southern Baptist piano teacher with a taste for Jelly Roll Morton. A teenage Geanie of Austin notoriety migrated to San Francisco at 20, to open at David Allen's Boardinghouse, but not with a band. Fortunately for her, Chicago guitarist Michael Bloomfield recommended a sometime sideman of Albert Collins and Freddie King, bassist Kip Maercklein. Along with Kip came saxophonist Sonny Lewis, the late John Chambers on drums and the inimitable flutist Hart McNee, all veteran bluesmen who would play with Geanie over her years in the Bay Area. A regular gig at Port Costa's Bull Valley Inn marked the maturation and metamorphosis of the saloon singer now evident on Wild Women' with its Brechtian echoes worthy of the Carlyle and where Kip is on upright bass and Fender backing up Geanie's piano. And hear how Producer McNee has ensembled a fine and eclectic collaboration of known New Orleans players: Storyville Stomper Will Smith is the Moorish trumpet in San Antonio, Maestro Hextor Gallardo, the moving tumbardoraes of Shadowed Sands, Jackson Square tenor Earl Brown, the tenor who "loves you most of the time" while drummer Dave Sobel of the Klezmer All stars is the movable time behind Hart's baritone infused Sugar, the evocations of Andaluz in the shadows beneath Geanie's Weimar voice when 'her ship comes in...' Movie credits: The song "All i want for Christmas is you" written and recorded by Geanie Stout and her Port Costa band for "The Larkshead Society" in 2003. A number of songs on this current album were written by Geanie for "The Land of Shadowed Sand", a current project of Lettered Union Pictures. Now playing: Geanie will be playing in the San Francisco Bay area ...you could still find her at The Bull Valley Inn in Port Costa or The No Name Bar in Sausalito... her favorite bars...There are many long time friends like guitar player Ed Sanchez, Terry Henry, Don Weed, Michael Moss..and of course the fabulous bass player Elaine Herrick from the Napa region...lots of old friends are bound to show up...don't miss the fun....
