Imagination, expression and creativity surround their individual worlds. In a child's eyes, there are no bounds, only discoveries. They are small explorers beginning their voyage of life. They are carefree, limitless and free to dream. As a leading creator of children's music, ASTORIA PRODUCTIONS provides unique tools for the development of imagination, confidence, and individuality. ASTORIA was founded in 1991 by performing arts instructor and 20 year voting member of the Grammys, INGRID FARAJ-BROWN. INGRID is committed to providing a creative environment for children to play, sing, perform and express themselves. ASTORIA is based on the idea that once children embrace the power of imagination, they can transcend all barriers. In INGRID'S SING AND DANCE-A-LONG CDs, original songs and fanciful lyrics (if you choose to use this product for karaoke purposes, the stage is available for purchase at astoriaproductions.com) encourage each child to embark on a new personal voyage of discovery. The utilization of these items gives children a creative, uninhibited edge and produce further opportunities for imagination. ASTORIA'S products provide thousand of children, both at home and in classrooms, with imaginative playgrounds. Our process of product testing and creation never ends and neither does a child's journey of fantasy and fun. ASTORIA...where every child becomes a star.
