Messianic - Sacred Name, Contemporary Traditional 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: ABOUT THE ARTISTS - Ron Jean Amodea: Ron's reputation as a guitarist, bassist and vocalist is well known from New York to Hollywood. He worked with virtually every top recording star and performed on more than 500 records and jingles. The most notable records include "Remember Then" by The Earls, "I Believe In Music" by Mac Davis, and "Since I Fell For You" by Lenny Welch. Jingles included Pan Am's "makes the going great," Benson Hedges' "a silly millimeter longer," Clairol's "she lets her hair down," and Mc Cleans Toothpaste. A record producer and performer, Ron is the holder of four gold records. He achieved million selling record status with three hit singles and one album: "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" with The Tokens, and "Candida" and "Knock Three Times" with Tony Orlando Dawn and the album, "Tony Orlando Dawn's Greatest Hits." Later in Ron's career, TV Motion Picture credits were added to his accomplishments. Among them, on the big screen, were "Jade," "Mortal Thoughts," and "Sabrina." On Television, Ron has been a regular with the Bobby Rosengarden Tonight Show Orchestra which was featured on Jerry Lewis' MDA Telethon each Labor Day. In New York City, Ron achieved recognition as one of the top guitarists and was a much sought after bandleader. He performed with Sinatra to Ray Charles to Bruce Springsteen and has appeared at the most exclusive venues from The Waldorf Astoria, 21 , The Pierre Hotel, The Ritz-Carlton Hotels to Lincoln Center. With the worldwide acclaimed Peter Duchin Orchestra, he has performed for with audiences such as international royalty, heads of state and USA presidents. Ron was indeed being prepared for the ministry of music throughout his professional career. Ron's wife and partner, Jean is also a vocalist, songwriter and recording artist. She has appeared in venues from Broadway theater to corporate and private functions in the New York and Florida area. An avid learner, Jean also achieved a Masters Degree in Educational Administration/Supervision and served as a school principal in New Jersey. As her passion for learning transferred to a hunger and thirst for learning about the source of the living waters, Jean made two trips to Eretz Yisrael in the 80's seeking "to know" (Yadah) her Creator in a deeper way. She then joined Ron composing, recording and performing their Messianic music throughout New Jersey and New York. Jean has co-produced and recorded five CD's to date in a wide variety of musical styles from jazz, pop, standards, international favorites in several languages to Messianic Israelite music. The duo now make their home in Naples, Florida where they have recently completed a highly successful three year run as The Peter Duchin Duo at the Ritz-Carlton, Naples. They perform in a resort hotel as a duo and with their bands and orchestra for area private social and corporate functions. Ron and Jean continue to share a passion for learning about their Israelite heritage and for writing and recording Messianic Israelite music for the edification of the body of true believers in Messiah Yahushua. ABOUT THE CD: The tracks are a mix of contemporary and traditional Israeli melodies - many are great uptempo tunes for Davidic dance! We use the Sacred name of YHWH throughout the collection, honoring the commandment!
