Jazz Harmonica with piano trio of piano, bass and drums 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Bebop, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Julian Jackson Featured soloist of Oscar winning soundtrack "The Full Monty" This album is dedicated with love to Mum and Dad and with special thanks to my Harmonica teachers and mentors who have helped and inspired me:- Larry Adler, James Hughes and Toots Thielemans; and to my first music teachers Sue Vale and Gerrard Harrison. Julian Jackson was brought up in a musical family in Liverpool as a student was Hohner British Harmonica Champion for three years running. Julian moved to London to become the only Harmonica player to ever study at both The Guildhall School Of Music The Royal Academy of Music. His unique style ability at both jazz classical Harmonica has won him the recognition of many musicians composers including jazz pianist Julian Josephs, and Jazz legend "Toots" Thielemans. Julian played in the touring quintet of Julian Joseph who commented "his playing has great soul and great melodic content and logic". Julian's influences include Charlie Parker, Miles Davis, John Coltrane Larry Adler "Toots" Thielemans. Julian has been fortunate to study with "Toots", who gave Julian one of his personalised Harmonicas. The only other person to have received one of these is Quincy Jones. Julian has been active in the session scene for, film, television, radio other artists CDs...
