His overwhelming passion for his instrument and his music has produced an incomparable guitar style, a style which is his trademark. It allows him to use all his fingers simultaneously, like a keyboardist, creating truly astonishing results. He can play the bass part, rhythm (accompaniment) and melody together for each of his unique and amazing arrangements or compositions, while at the same time embellish them with harp-like arpeggios, generating a rich, full-bodied sound. Kayler elevates sentimental expression in his playing, establishing a direct and familiar rapport with his listeners. Kayler rightfully earned the title of "Guitarist Extraordinaire". He is in a class of his own. The scope of his talent is so impressive that it appeals to people of all ages. Within the past few years, Kayler has released several wonderful CDs which are available for purchase. Among them is the remarkable "Time Was." His passion for Latin music is reflected in these ten magnificent arrangements. Each piece has a vibration of its own and sticks with you on the first listen. One cannot help but marvel at Kayler's awesome technical dexterity. This recording contains no overdubs
