4 new songs (and a re-mix) from the most prolific singer/songwriter from Connecticut named Mitchell. 5 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: Hello friends! This new record is really just a compilation of a few new tunes I recorded with some collaborators over the past 5 months. It's really 4 new songs with a re-mix of "Time On My Hands" from my 2005 solo album. Its the same basic feel as my solo album, maybe a bit more melancholy lyrically, but a bit more punchy (or dare I say rockin) musically.
As far as the America song (track #4) goes, for those friends of the right-leaning persuasion, dont take it personally. The idea came to me during the fall when many people I knew kept voicing the same sentiment in reaction to the messed up stuff going on in our country. Generally, it was a cadence to a rant that always went something like this this S#$ keeps up I am gonna leave the country. So, it sounded like a hook and I capitalized on it. I dont really wanna get out of America. I am too lazy and stupid to wanna deal with the foreign currency. And if you interpret track #3, The West Side, to mean the US and Europe, then Ive redeemed myself. Ps The record, at this point, is quite homegrown and doesnt come with any artwork or liner notes or thank yous or pics. What you see is what you get. So, Id just like to thank Dan Rowe, Charlotte Kendrick, Jeff Norberg, Kevin Hupp and Brett Kull for their contributions. Id especially like to thank Pete Moshay who co-produced it with me. I will always remember and honor the mantras we coined together the wetter the better, more is more, and of course, I dig big!
