A creative blend of R&B and other urban styles, skillfully woven into an instrumental uptempo jazz genre. 12 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Biography N'Touch is a Portland, Oregon USA based band. Their music is a creative recipe of r&b, latin, gospel and other urban styles, skillfully woven into an instrumental up-tempo jazz genre. N'Touch's repertoire has few limitations. The band members are Generation-X musicians who feel the pulse of the listening community. Each band member embodies enough individual talent to stand-alone. But as a team they deliver a knockout performance, which the group is becoming known for. Playing original material and covers, N'Touch is carving their space into the West Coast music scene. N'Touch puts on a dynamite performance. Some of the most noted artists that individual members of the band have had the pleasure to play with include: Leroy Vinegar, Darrell Grant, Mel Brown, Ben Tankard, Yolanda Adams and John P. Kee. N'Touch recently opened for the Portland concerts of Earth,Wind Fire (August 2000), Tower of Power (July 2001), Angelique Kidjo (October 2001) and Boney James (April 2002). Their popularity and notoriety is increasing and N'Touch is no longer the best kept secret in the Pacific Northwest. Band Members: Sax - Leading the band is saxophonist Eldon "T" Jones who has been influenced by such artists as Grover Washington Jr., Wilton Felder of the Crusaders and Kirk Whalum.
