"Earthy, sensual and moving...a truly unique style of Greek, East Indian, and Middle Eastern musical influences combine with Western sounds that make some pretty wonderful world music. Simopoulos splashes aural color with great skill." The Music Paper 10 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Fusion, WORLD: Middle East Details: Nana Simopoulos As traditional music fans have searched for something new to capture their interest, most new artists have simply tried to imitate what is currently popular. While music fans have expressed a greater interest in World Music, most have realized that the genre is merely a collection of international artists performing what is traditional in their country and their culture. This is why Nana Simopoulos is capturing so much attention. Nana is a unique "world based" artist who is creating a new "universal" genre of music that combines her love of Greek music and culture with various music styles and influences from around the world. Building upon a vast array of musical and songwriting influences such as Ralph Towner, classic folk and popular music artists Joni Mitchell and sitarist Rais Kahan. For music fans that are truly in search of creative new music and desiring the experiences of a new "universal" style, Nana Simopoulos is the artist that will be leading the way in the transformation of current world music into what it truly can be.
