Hailing from London, England, Peppercornrent play original, lively alt.country, folk-rock music. The songs travel over some dark areas of twisted relationships, dead dogs and of course gin, cigarettes and regret. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Peppercornrent's music is quite hard to precisely nail down - not that we'd really want you to. A wide and diverse blend of personalities, experience and musical influences all combine to create quite an unusual exciting band that can fill a stage - and often most of the venue as well. Changes in pace, direction and energy are thick, fast and not necessarily anticipated - although all the songs hang there happily in that unique Peppercornrent ether. The band are equally as happy sitting in the beer garden surrounded by glasses, playing truly acoustically, as they are filling some of the larger venues and festival stages. Peppercornrent is a bit of a big, predominantly acoustic, band playing some eclectic all-original material - sort of an alt.country, folk-rock, blues band - perhaps....
