(westcoastsolutions.biz), his IT consulting firm located on The Sunshine Coast of BC; that represents and consults on accounting, business, E-Commerce, HRIS, PDA, and EDI software solutions for small and medium-sized companies. By night, Waldo is a songwriter, musical composer, and guitarist who has been writing stories, poetry, and songs for over 20 years as a hobbyist. Waldo is very pleased and excited to introduce his artistic life through Waldo Creative, and particularly pleased to announce the new, hot-off-the press release of his premiere CD entitled "Waldo Wants to Wake up the World!" This CD includes 11 tracks of original musical compilations, some of which we will have the opportunity to sample in just a few moments! So what is Waldo's philosophy and why is it relevant to the listener? As Waldo's CD title proclaims, Waldo is a visionary, a rebel with a cause... who intends to rattle complacency, and inspire listeners to reflect on the beauty of the natural world, on the one hand, and the environmental issues the human race faces, on the other. He wants to incite awakening and raise consciousness in the world! Waldo's music invokes a mood of tranquility and peacefulness, which is conducive to meditation and contemplation. Waldo's vision is to help create a more loving, peaceful, and compassionate world! Waldo's songs speak of the importance of unification of all peoples in the hopes of a more concerted effort for peace and understanding. Waldo's songs speak to the environmental and social issues that threaten our planet. They speak of the innocence and freedom of children, and how important it is for us to save this world for their futures. Waldo's songs speak of the turbulence and tumultuous nature of our world and our modern-day stresses. Waldo's music is truly a message of love, hope, and optimism!
