Details: Alex Natanson (aka: Nathanson), singer, songwriter, composer and arranger was born in Argentina to an American father and Peruvian mother. This mix of cultures gave him a broad knowledge of American and Latin contemporary music. Alex began writing and singing music at the age of 15 and dedicated his whole life to the craft. His musical experiences throughout the years, helped him compose and record successfully with many different bands in Peru and the U.S., such as "Tarkus" and "Telegraph Ave" to name just a few. In California, Alex met Annette Serna. They fell in love and discovered they could sing well together. Alex also discovered that the voice of Annette was very conducive to singing the songs of the legendary 70's music and found that they had a great chemistry together. Thus, the duet team of A+A (Alex + Annette) was born. They decided to record an album together. They set out to record some classic songs (covers) with new arrangements and a different vibe, along with additional songs that were written, composed and arranged by Alex. They recorded a joyful, dynamic, smooth, strong and especially romantic album entitled "The Girl From Ocean Drive".
