Forever Out of the basement inbetween a gray area of mainstream music and underground hip-hop is where you will find this none stop hard hittin' compilation, Doc Ish Presents "Basic Fundamentals". By way of a number of states and cities coming out of Hartford, CT is a young innovator by the name of Doc Ish

(of the group Self-Made) Music, had always been apart of his inner soul. Some people run away to their secret spot or their liquor bottle when their stress has reached it's limit. For him, it was always music. He would disappear to the basement (his bedroom) for hours making beats, mind lost in it's own. His visions are always aimed at the future on what will make him a better producer. Always digging for what nobody has touched or done yet, trying to think and stay ahead. Taking journey's deep within and basing his production on how he feels at that particular moment. So many want and look for up tempo, happy fun boy type beats but "If I don't feel it I won't make it"(Doc always says). Using a style that's diverse, yet formatted to him. Blackout Ent. owned by (Doc Ish, Colloso, Apollo Swyf), was established to help put hungry underground emcee's in the spot light. Focusing on the artist creativity and the essence of hip-hop
