LATIN R&B BEAUTY BARES HER SOUL ON NEW CD San Diego, CA -- That voice its sultry and smoky, sexy and funky, soulful and honest and as real as it comes. By the time the first song on Jodi V.s new cd is over, you realize the San Diego born and raised singer/songwriter is a true music artist and not some talent-less pretty girl cultivated by a record label hoping to sucker music fans with her looks. Sure, Jodis a certified super-hottie with the beauty of a Latin goddess and curves that would make a lingerie model jealous, but she has the voice of an R&B angel and a way with writing songs that are so relatable and real-to-life that fans everywhere can get into what shes saying. Jodi V. is about to unleash her street-wise blend of R&B, soul and pop with her first full-length cd titled Seed of Love. Jodi's cd is scheduled for a Fall release by Rotation Music with national distribution by Universal Music Group. On Seed of Love, Jodi V. shows an impressive musical range from the street hip love-gone-wrong of Crazy Chick to the melodic and mellow Seed of Love. In Breaking Down, Jodi breathlessly dissects the emotions found in a broken relationship, while Uh Oh features a club-throbbing beat and Jodis taunting sexy, yet affirming line, You want itl got it. Seed of Loves main producer is San Diegos street famous Etienne. Fingazz (Lean Like A Cholo), David Salas/Omar Gonzalez and Shawn Bossick also produced tracks on the cd. Their credits include artists with Sony, Universal, Interscope, Atlantic, Warner Brothers, Capitol and EMI, as well as Top 10 singles and major motion picture soundtrack work. Jodi describes her music in simple, one-word phrases. The songs, she says, are Inspiring, bright, soulful, comforting, rhythmic, emotional, real and sincere. The songs and Jodi V. herself are all those things and more. Her music proves that good-looking girls can do more than just look good. They can also write powerful lyrics and sing amazingly honest and real songs that appeal to a wide range of fans from all walks of life.
