As a singer/songwriter and guitarist, Julie Schreiber, graduate of Berklee College of Music, has been performing professionally since 1994. She has performed at numerous college campuses, coffeehouses, bookstores, bars, clubs, and festivals, and worked with such artists as: Greg Howe, Leni Stern, The Nields, Ellis Paul, The Badlees, Mary Prankster, Tom Rush, Livingston Taylor, Vance Gilbert and Richie Havens. Possessing a four-octave range and the ability to write diverse styles of music, Julie leaves audiences amazed by her vocal talent and moved by the power and passion of her music. "As impressive as Julie Schreiber's talent in crafting an interesting, catchy and meaningful song is, it's still only secondary to her ability to sing. Start with the clarity of a Joan Baez, but add in some infectious drive, an ability to hold a note and some occasional slithery and sultry intonations...this is post-coffeehouse, pop-influenced, rock-oriented original stuff...As a kicker, the band incorporates classics...not simply covers, but rather standards, plus some "value added" guitar work by Wirsing. Schreiber's tribute to Led Zeppelin, her rendition of "Immigrant Song" is masterful, reverential, and full throttled" (John Train, PA Musician, March 2002). Eric Wirsing Lead guitarist, Eric Wirsing's extraordinary musical gift and interest in all genres of music brings forth a versatility not often found in someone his age. "...Wirsing flat-out rules the electric guitar, wailing with style and grace..." (Daniel Unterberger, Fly Magazine, January 2003). While at Berklee College of Music, Eric joined the Julie Schreiber Band and has worked with her since. "Eric adds something to my music that I had been looking for for years." said Schreiber. "He is an amazing performer, songwriter and arranger. He's one of the best kept secrets in music." Melvin Torres Drummer

Melvin Torres joined the Julie Schreiber Band in January of 2004. Born and raised in Puerto Rico, Torres brings exuberance and joy to his playing that is manifest in the overall sound of the band. Melvin moved to New York City from Puerto Rico in 1992 to attend the Drummers Collective, where he studied and worked with notables such as Kim Plainfield and Christopher Parker. He moved to Lancaster, PA in 1994 and has been playing and studying his craft since. Described by Julie as the "big, lovable guy with drum sticks", Melvin is a welcome addition to the Julie Schreiber Band. Mike Passariello A bass player of nearly 20 years, Mike Passariello brings a great deal of varied musical experience to the Julie Schreiber Band. Mike has performed and recorded with several area bands and is also a member of the group Wayne Supergenius. Mike first performed with the Julie Schreiber Band in October of 2004 and instantly felt a strong connection to the music. When asked what he thought about working with the Julie Schreiber Band, Mike stated, "I consider myself lucky to be making music with such talented musicians as Julie, Eric, and Melvin". "...the Julie Schreiber Band is a non parallel pop/art-rock band with the ability to juice up a guitar lick or do a devastating classic 60's acid or psychedelic rock cover... Schreiber and Wirsing have transcended much of the yin-yang feel of the band by creating originals which fuse Wirsing's feverish (Van Halen-ish) rock sense of guitar with Schreiber's passionate multi-octave delivery style (John Train, PA Musician, July 2005)."
