Folk rock, piano, singer/songwriter 12 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: The perfect antidote for you panic attack! Liam McFadden is a singer / songwriter based in the North East of England. 'Rivers And Bridges' is a completely solo project, written, performed, produced, filleted and braised in a red wine sauce by Liam. The tone and mood of the music best suit those wind down moments, early evening into late-night, and reflect the concerns of a pensive forty-something in the bewildering 21st century. For 'reviews' of Liam's music, visit his page at myspace.com/liammcfadden, and read what the lovely people there have left in his comments box! Here are some examples: Your music is sublime...especially your voice. Your material is fantastic. "Peace These Days" is a standout Great to have discovered your music - 'Gliders' is fantastic. Love your voice and great songs! You have a gift for tune and turn of phrase that is quite engaging. masterful artist Hey, my parents gave me your CD and it's awesome! Your voice is stunning as are your songs. Every time I hear your music it makes me feel a little more relaxed. I love your lyrics and sensibility too. It's wonderful. My family loves your songs! "World At Her Feet" is an amazing track! Perfect from top to bottom. Wonderful tunes! Everyone should give a listen. "Peace These Days", I cannot get enough of this song. It has made its way into my "music hall of fame". ..'Peace These Days' ..what can I say but just magic.. You are a great song writer and your voice is the most worthy instrument to present your masterpieces. The song Home for Christmas really touched me. You really have a great sound and your lyrics are so to the heart! Your songs are really strong and have a lot of clever yet subtle little diversions which remind me of Neil Finn's work
