Motivated Pop/Rock music with honest lyrics and riveting melodies. A masterful blend of soul and sweetness. 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, POP: Piano Details: Honest lyrics, riveting melodies, and motivated rhythms are what singer/songwriter, Lindsey Mosher, calls her passion. Although a songwriter of varied genres, Lindsey places her emphasis on Rock/Pop music and performance. "Writing and performing make me happy," says Lindsey, "I couldn't just do one or the other." In September of 2004 Lindsey released her first album, Free, comprised of 15 original songs all written and co-produced by the 21 year old musician. From Alaska to the Netherlands, Lindsey's CD has sold all over the United States and internationally. Within one month of release, radio station KRAI FM of the Yampa Valley, Craig, and Steamboat Springs, Colorado, added Lindsey to its playlist and invited Lindsey to perform at a station-sponsored concert. Besides performing private concerts, Lindsey has had diverse musical experiences that add to her personal style. Lindsey has performed in concert with jazz Grammy nominee, Nnenna Freelon, has opened for rock band, Midnight to Twelve (heard on Warner Brother's One Tree Hill), and has recorded with various Christian music artists. Lindsey's music is currently on Broadjam.com's Top 10 List for the state of Arizona. Lindsey is a truly independent and charismatic person. Her motivation and creativity are displayed in her music and her attitude. "I will always be working on improving my lyrics, my vocals, my music, but I am content and grateful for who I am. That's something that can't be changed."
