Guitar driven Pop/Rock with catchy, singable choruses. 11 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Acoustic Details: I am husband of nearly 7 years to the incredible Myssi Brown. Together we have 3 beautiful children: Jaden (5), Mya (3) and Levi (1). Together the four of them have taught me more about God as Father, Lover, Friend and Lord than I could have imagined. I will forever be thankful... I was born a poor black child... wait that was Steve Martin. But I was born a black child. Raised just across the river from Manhattan as the last of eight children, I grew up in NJ loving art, music and sports. I attended the University of Richmond (Va.) with a full scholarship to play football baseball. That is where I was first introduced to Christ, His love and His Word. That was 1990. My life was radically changed forever and I discovered a passion for music as I learned about Him and longed to worship Him more. Since then I have taught myself the guitar keyboard, and have been fortunate to have the opportunity to worship in many different settings with many different types of people. This album hopefully reflects some of the passion diversity I love about God life itself. Beginning with a strong rock/pop feel, it introduces some strong thematic concepts in "I Surrender" "When I Stand Still." If you like love ballads, "Someone Like You" may be for someone like you. Simple acoustic driven I think you'll find something you want to move to something you'll want to sit down think about. I hope you enjoy listening!
