The fist CD " In my wounded heart" was dedicated to the Russian Romantic music of the last 200 years. Known by her many fans as "Lady Sinatra" Yana brings back to us in this CD a tribute to the Golden Era of the American music of -40's, 50's and 60's. Concentrating on the love songs cherished by the people of every age and walk of life, Yana brings her vibrant interpretation to each song, telling a story within a story. How many lifelong love affairs began dancing to the charm and simplicity of "Misty" while others teared in the determination and inspiration of the "Cry me a river". The listeners' senses will respond, remembering the sights, sounds, smells and feel of that time in their life. Shivers down the spine and goosebumps all over will accompany a mental image with one foot in today and one in yesterday. Yana will touch hearts and souls with -enchantment. Her voice will send those who were there back on that romantic journey and those who were not will be motivated to create new memories with evocative feelings of the past. Whether through reminiscences or the joy of finding something new, each song will excite the memories of today and leave all touched by the artist's compelling inner world. Enjoy!
