This book is an inspiring autobiography about a young woman who stayed in a fifteen-year abusive marriage for the sake of her three children when without notice, she finds herself filing for divorce on the grounds of abandonment because her husband walked out on her and their daughters. She then had to put her business on hold, moved her family to another state to start over where she tries to adjust to becoming a divorced, single parent. With being in a new state; she strives to get her business back together, the ups and downs of raising her children alone, and at the same time, going through the struggle of getting to know herself again. This book explores the victories and defeats of single parenthood, dating, and starting life over.
