experimental electronic music with elements of spoken word, techno, ambient, industrial, and comedy 17 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Eclectronic, the 3rd release from Colorado experimentalists 404 Not Found, showcases a wide variety of styles. Molded around the group's trademark spoken word set to electronic music style, this CD features tracks that venture into industrial noise, techno dance, and even ambient. In addition to commenting on Internet culture and American society, the material includes such science fiction themes as alien invasion, the destruction of Earth, and the always loveable bicycling robot with a penis injury. Eclectronic is the culmination of over two years of collaboration with over a dozen guest performers, from Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Louisiana, Sweden, and Switzerland. It was digitally recorded, mixed, and mastered at the A7 Audio Research Lab, a private recording studio in Broomfield, Colorado.
