Songs to placate political rappers, truck drivin' women, anti-gun nuts, gas-guzzling muscle headed muscle car enthusiasts, coffee lovers, suburbia haters and so much more. 27 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: Songs about love, trucks, inbreeding, religion, love and so much more, Bill Dant is a Portland, Oregon recording artist who has entertained many and offended only a few thickies who "Just Don't Get It!," since 1990. Moving seamlessly between musical styles as diverse as rock, country, synth-driven Krautrock psychedelia, Dr. Demento describes Bill as having, "A Wicked Sense Of Humor And Songcraft," and played his 1991 classic "It's Our God-Given Right To Drive V-8's," which is ironically as scathing an indictment on jingoism today, as it was during the first Gulf War. National Public Radio's cult show "Car Talk" loved Bill's disturbed sense of humor as well, playing "Suicide Pinto" recently, which prompted Bill to finally make ALL THE GOODS available to the general public. Nearly 80 minutes of goodness packed into 27 more songs, this sequel of chicanery will leave listeners more than satisfied and wanting more.
