He later switched to Alto Tenor Saxophone. During his 15 years as a musician, Cyril studied several types of music genre from Military Marches, to Classical, Pop, and Rhythm/Blues. He performed in his schools jazz ensemble, marching band, and as a soloist. In the 80s, as rap hit the music scene, he became a DJ, following the lead of Grand Master Flash and Red Alert. Cyril started his own mobile DJ Company where he developed his DJ skills as well as the art of promoting. He then spent three years promoting at two of the most popular clubs in New Orleans, Caf Brazil and Caf Istanbul. Cyrils next step was becoming a studio engineer. He moved to New York City, co-founded Slumlandz Entertainment, and helped promote, market, and engineer the companys artists. Cyril returned to New Orleans to work at the Shed Recording Studio where he had the opportunity to work with some of New Orleans world famous musicians; Alvin Baptist, Maynard Chatters, Kid Jordan, to name a few. Following Hurricane Katrina, Cyril returned to New York and is currently working on Do You See Red, featuring the talents of rappers from across the country. He is the founder and president of The Industry, LLC., which runs an audio engineering and video production school and company, as well as a music consulting firm for artists who need representation as they break into the industry. He also serves as Vice President of One Life One Family, LLC., continuing to represent Slumlandz Entertainment artists and expanding into Hip Hop Global.com. With over 20 years in the music business, Cyril has practically done it all- and wants to help others to achieve their dreams.
