Details: With a voice that melts hearts and instills Passion, Franco Corso, "The Voice of Romance" continues to mesmerize audiences worldwide. His distinctive and powerful Baritone Voice has been called Elegant and Provocative. Inspired by Dean Martin and Sergio Franchi, this Romantic Crooner has tantalized audiences as a headliner and opening acts for thirty major Artists, including Andrea Bocelli. Born and raised in Sanremo, Italy, Franco started his musical career at the age of six attending catholic school and discovering his true potential while singing in the church choir. By the time he attended high school, Franco was encouraged to perform at every assembly, wedding and community celebration. Franco, is not only a performing artist, but also a gourmet chef having his recipes published in Pasta magazine. With a Bachelors Degree in Hospitality Management, Franco became a skilled Italian chef specializing in Pasta dishes of both Northern and Southern Italy. As a performer, Franco came to Palm Beach, Florida in 2001 when he was invited to perform for Donald Trump. The overwhelming and enthusiastic response from his audience convinced Franco that the United States was the place to develop his career. For the next 4 years, his debut Album: "Passione" has sold over 30,000 copies. Backed by his extensive fan base and rave reviews, not only has Franco performed to sold out audiences in major Theatres, Hotels and Casinos across the country, but he has also given performances to Italian dignitaries including Sophia Loren, Gina Lollobrigida and Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi. Francos second Album: "Amore" was released on May 28th 2009. The Album includes some of the most Romantic Italian-American songs, including the new versions of My Way and You raise me up, both written in Italian with a new music arrangement. Franco is presently touring with his new Cd Release: "Amore" - The Gift of Bocelli, featuring the most Romantic Italian-American Love Songs and a Tribute to the Music of Andrea Bocelli.
