Details: Galdson was born in Spain in 1977 and took up the piano at the age of 10, under Maruxa Lemas supervision. After studying independently for five years, he joined Vivero conservatory of music, where he consolidated his studies with the teacher Elosa Prez, who encouraged him to continue in the music world. Following one year at the conservatory, he moved to Corua to start studying for the primary school teacher specialisation. He combined his music training in Corua conservatory with his university studies. He studied under the teacher Elena Segura, a fundamental mainstay of his training, for five years, and obtained his professional pianist qualification. He currently lives in Ortigueira, where he has just finished composing his third work, Musical Landscapes II.
