a divinely inspired album, made to bless you. the music is beautiful, the lyrics are fresh and the voice is unique. 14 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Grace Okonrende is young woman born on 11th of July 1986. From her early age, everyone knew that she was a special gift and a great woman of God in the making. She's the eldest of three younger ones and the only daughter of her parents. Ever since she could speak, Grace has been singing in school choirs and church choirs. At ten, she relocated to London, England to be with her parents. There she put together young people who were known as "Glorious tomorrow". They were invited to different places to minister. She later moved to America at the age of thirteen. Immediatly, she became a part of the Sheldon High School Choir in Sacramento, California. Most of her friends were singers and this allowed Grace to hear others, and better herself. With the support of her parents and her brothers, Grace has been able to compose her own songs and produce two albums. Grace believes she is here for a puropse and that purpose must be fulfilled. She wants to reach the world, especially the youths with her music and her lifestyle. This is just the begining.
