Recorded live on October 25th and 26th at Saddleback Church in Lake Forest, California, this Traditional Jazz Christmas CD includes many of your Christmas favorites, revisiting the heart of the Jazz Masters from the past to deliver exciting new performances that will entice and inspire. "Is It Christmas Yet?" is a CD that everyone can enjoy with traditional Christmas Carols to Holiday Christmas selections that will bring back fond memories of yesteryear. With songs like "Christmas Time Is Here" from the Charlie Brown Christmas Special to Greg's 5 year-old daughter singing "Silent Night"; from a screaming track like "White Christmas" performed to a Bossa Nova, to a swinging "Winter Wonderland" based around the classic jazz tune "Killer Joe". Styles include Swing, Bossa Nova, Jazz Waltz, Jazz Ballad, and Blues Shuffle. Go Listen to a few tracks right now and see what all the excitement is really about. Is It Christmas Yet? Vanessa Vail asks that question at the beginning of the first track. You know the one? (It starts about 8 weeks before Christmas is here.) The music answers her question with a heart warming "Yes!" as the first track rolls into "Christmas Time Is Here." And indeed, it is! Enjoy the sample Tracks and order today to insure camel delivery before Christmas 2005 by the, now very old, wise men! Merry Christmas and God Bless You, Greg Vail Music
