Details: "I predict 'Donald Trump's Hair' will be the biggest selling album of my career," says Kacey Jones. "Why? Because these are the funniest songs I've ever written and because the world is in such a miserable state that people need a good LAUGH...now!" And nobody knows how to spin life's little miseries into a goodlaugh, accompanied by great music, better than songwriter-humorist, Kacey Jones. From the title track, an homage to "The Donald" to 'God Save the Queens,' an homage to drag queens, every track on this CD will make the listener SMILE and help them forget the mortgage, the electric bill, and the car payment for one precious, carefree hour. Miss Jones has been laughed at by the likes of People Magazine, USA Today, Country Weekly, and as Garrison Keillor's guest on A Prairie Home Companion (NPR) Kacey is the 'Official Songstress' of the The Sweet Potato Queens, an organization with 5,750 chapters and 75,000 members worldwide.
