Details: They say what doesn't kill you makes you stronger. That's what Kellee's new album "Waiting" is all about. It's about joy and pain; loss and hope. The songs on this album will make you laugh and cry. From "Who's Gonna Love Me", the autobiographical song about the death of her mother in 2004, to "Waiting", the celebration song about the gift of love, this is a unique and beautiful collection of Kellee at her very best. She's been compared to the Cranberrys, Aimee Mann and Sheryl Crow, yet she has a sound all her own. She's opened for artists like Jo Dee Messina, Basia, John Mellencamp, Huey Lewis and the News, Christopher Cross, Chicago and Curtis Salgado. Kellee is the whole package! She's a great songwriter, with an incredible voice, and a dynamic performer.
