Bakersfield sound country music 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: The first track on this album is Buck Owens with his acoustic guitar. This song was never before released, so it is the last release ever by Country's superstar "BUCK OWENS". Kenni Huskey began singing country music in 1959 at age 5, making her first stage appearance under the strict guidance of her country music performer/songwriter parents, Bill and Julia Huskey. Kenni made a string of records on her dad's label "JAKBIL RECORDS" as a youngster. She first performed in the Grand Ole Opry at age 12, with many performances thereafter, as well as sharing the stage with greats such as Loretta Lynn and Roy Acuff and other Opry legends. As a young teenager, she moved with her family to Southern California, and played gigs with her family at venues big and small. She was discovered by Buck Owens at age 15 and signed to a 5 year performing contract with Buck's All-American band and recorded for Capitol records, with two hit records. Elected in the Academy of Country Music in 1975, Kenni signed with Warner Brothers. In 1980, she signed with a London label, Country Roads, and performed in Europe and Asia as well as the US. Kenni is back, with a quarter century of stored up energy. Please visit Kenni also at KenniHuskey.com. Kenni signed with Recall Records and BiTom Artist Management, thus this newly released album.
