Contemporary Traditional soul gospel vocals 14 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: I learned to play the piano in my father's church at the age of 8. I had a older cousin that introduced me to quartet gospel music. We formed a group called the Supreme Jubilees. We toured with groups like Willie Neal Johnson and the Keynotes and the Mighty Clouds in the 80's. My roots are in the traditional gospel field. My favorite singer is the late Donny Hathaway. I was heavily influenced by such artis and groups an the Hawkins Family, The Winans, Commissioned, Thomas Whitfield, and Milton Brunson the Thompson Community Choir and many more. This music could take you away from particular problem temporarily and give you that needed brake you needed to make through the day. Music for me is a journey not a destination. We've come so far but there is still much more ahead. Music speaks to the soul and if you keep your hand in the master's hand, everything will be alright. I have performed on stage with other artist such as Willie Neal Johnson and The Gospel Keynotes, The Mighty Clouds Of Joy and several others. I was the keyboard player for D.J. Rogers his community choir in the 80's in his brief stay in the California Central Valley. I am currently working on another cd project which I consider to be my best work. It should be released in the summer of 2005. This current cd project is getting air play in the bay area on the stations promoted by Bro. Emmitt Powell who by the way says he kind of likes the cd. I will be in concert sometime in the near future in the bay area promoted by Bro. Powell. I will have that information posted on my website. Keep me in your prayers because there is much more to come.
