This CD has mostly been referred to as "an alltime favorite", "never leaves my CD player", "gave my copy to a friend and need another one". Don t you need one too? Debut recording of singer-songwriter Lon Williamson with a great cast of players. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Bluegrass

Details: Lon Williamson was born in California but has invested most of his life so far in Florida. He lives out in the woods where he creates not only fine songs, but plays great upright bass in several bands and is a world class mandolin builder. This collection of tunes, Streetlight Serenade was a long-awaited debut recording and did not disappoint. It has been dubbed "a new classic" and received great reviews. Lon has a truly devoted following of fans who take a great interest in his songs old and new, and follow his bands as well to various concerts and festivals. In his many years of performing, he has become a well respected writer and player in the Southeastern U. S. and you can find out more about Lon and his music at gatorbone.com.
