I note of thanks to all of the singers and musicians who had a part in the recording sessions of this project. Our time in the studio will always be a most memorable event. Clarence "T-Lee" Hill - I see you still made time for me...I appreciate you more than words can say, Immanuel "Redd" Lewis - endless creations, genius extradonaire, Ed Wright - jazz keys through eternity: keep up the great work, keep your focus and you'll go far, and Anthony Brice, your "keys were off the chain!" Michael "Count" Jones - the strings on your bass is still "sweat'n" from the work out! Isaac Thompson - your sweet lead licks added new dimensions to my stuff, as I knew it would. Ira "JR" McCall- you're the man to call for tough skins. Stacy "Quick" Ellis -now we've finally got the opportunity to work on a project together. You're the percussion "King" in the Pocket... "Rhythm" should have been your middle name!!! To the singers - Cheryl Twilley, Monique Horton, Jessica Harper, Ragina Worthy, Alyse Calhoun, Tesia Wright, Charlene Twilley, LaMar Horton and Marcus McCall. Thanks for your BGVS on Conqueror, Lead Me To The Rock, and the Live So Medley". To my girl- Brenda Kelley and my boyee- T-Lee for your smooth vocals on Thou Art Worthy! Brenda you were also phenomenal on Call Him and Jehovah - Jireh - I luv you for it girl! The Fellas - C. Anthony Bryant, Joseph Hope and Reginald O'Neil for the BGVS on "Heaven". For the tracks "Believer's Promise" and Counselor" - Phoenecia Houston, Tony Lee and Alyse Calhoun - it was amazing to hear your vocals in the studio...your melodic vibratos complemented each other as if you came from same tree. I am most grateful to you for that...Special thanks also goes Tiffany Woolard for the Photos sessions and Scotty Worthy for the sets props . Thanks Julian Paulk, my friend and brother, for the photos of Pops ring. All your contributions have given my music and even greater sound for the world to hear. I can't ever thank you enough. To Pastor Rudolph Stanfield - thanks for your advice about the industry...It's great to know you as my friend and brother. Can't wait to work with you again. Thanks for showing me and keeping me in tune with this business of gospel music. Thanks to David Leonard/Reveal Audio Services (Writeside Productions) Marietta, GA. Dave thanks so much for your accompaniment on the Acoustic Guitar for the tracks: "I Adore You" and "See You Again!" You were simply wonderful...!
