God-pop for real women struggling with real life issues with a twist of real hope. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: The music on "exposed" is God-pop for real women struggling with real life issues with a twist of real hope. It is a journey for women who struggle with relationships, self-esteem or stress. It infuses varied musical styles such as rock, latin, jazz, and pop as the listener struggles with life issues, questions where God resides in those issues, and finally echoes of affirmations of His faithfulness and love for us. The CD features twelve original songs performed by seven artists who play together for one purpose: to expose those places in our lives where the material and the spiritual world collide, and where Gods perfect grace meets us in our very imperfect world.
