Amsterdam. The brutal slaying of a British tourist and the subsequent arrest and imprisonment of a young football supporter sparks off an orgy of violence. But the killing is no random act. The boy is innocent. The real killer returns to England to begin the final chapter of an obsessive campaign of revenge that has spanned several decades. SLOW POISON revolves around a summer of terror perpetuated by two young brothers on a Cotswold council estate in the late Nineteen-Fifties. Their torture leaves one victim scarred and crippled, both physically and mentally. The narrative follows a multi-layered study of intimidation, dark secrets and misguided vengeance, culminating in a bloody siege high in the snowbound Cotswold Hills.
