Acting animals and humans share a special bond. From monkeys to dolphins, this book introduces readers to the many types of acting animals and their roles, including modeling for photographs, performing in live shows, or acting in commercials, television shows, or movies. Readers will learn the history of animal actors, such as the famous Lassie and Mister Ed, as well as training and safety measures. Colorful graphics, exciting photographs, interesting facts, and short, engaging sentences encourage readers to learn more about acting animals!
