From downwntempo through to nu dance elements you'll hear funk up downbeats, twisted breaks, smooth grooves and dubbed out soundscapes. There will be something for everyone to synchronize their lives to so start the journey with us here and now and who knows where we will all end up! The first release is courtesy of Admon and is titled "4AM Life". It fits the bill just right with its rhythmic glitchy noises combined with deeper mood sounds, easy listening style and filtered breaks. Moves and beats to keep you moving vertically horizontal! Admon is the moniker of producer and DJ Damon Vallero. Damon has been heavily involved in making and DJ'ing techno for the past 9 years and this is his first foray into a completely different style of music. Damon has notched up over twenty five techno releases to date and sold records all around the world as well as DJ'ing and playing live in the UK and Europe. In 2002 Damon was voted a category winner in the UK Diesel-U-Music awards held at Fabric in London and performed live at the event to a capacity crowd. Under his Admon name Damon presents another side of his musical character exploring a wider variety of sounds, textures and rhythms. The music retains a deep feel to it and is augmented with vocal samples and sounds which give the music an individual identity and atmosphere.
