Irish traditional pub songs with a rousing kicked up spin 15 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: BEHAN gives traditional Irish pub singing tunes "a rousing, kicked-up spin". This "Wall of MaleVoice Quintet" is made up of brothers Bernard "Barney" (guitar mandolin), Michael (pennywhistle, concertina fiddle), and Joseph (bodhran harmonica) Behan along with brother-in-law Joe Morris (bodhran snare) and grade school buddy Russ George (guitar bodhran). BEHAN's influences include The Clancy Brothers, The Dubliners, The Irish Rovers, DFW's own Irish Rogues, Bing Crosby and daddy Behan's predilection to inundate their young ears with the jigs reels and barndances of the 78 player variety. Somehow the punk music scene, liturgical music and the Arlington Drum and Bugle corp factor in as well. What others have said: "Behan go Bragh, I rate them a ten of ten, good beat!" "They do a good boogie and a darn smart celtic thing!" "They're nice, well mannered boys who give the trad Irish pub songs and tunes a mean kicked-up spin"
