Everybody that came to [his performance] was absolutely blown away by the artistry, by the feeling, the tone--everything--and asked me if I would book him again because they enjoyed him". "Coming from a younger generation of electronic music and smooth grooves, the contemporary saxophone of Grover Washington Jr. definitely inspired me to take my saxophone playing to another level." Edgar plays keyboards, soprano, alto and tenor saxophones. He also composes, produces, engineers and performs digital audio editing on the computer.

This is quite an achievement for one individual and it demonstrates the drive and determination Edgar possesses to be successful in the music business, which will certainly be evident when listening to his c.d. entitled "On The Beach". " All of the songs on the c.d. mean a lot to me, as any song should to an artist who performs their own material. " Take My Hand", "Soul Journey" and "The Dress" are special to me because the songs appeared to me while dreaming. I know that none of this would be possible without God, and I know how it feels to be personally blessed by God". Edgar Wallace Jr.
