

Mp3 Eric Apoe And They - Radioation

DOWNLOAD HERE

European Cinematic stories based in American Roots music 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Goth Details: Eric Apoe, Seattle-born songwriter worked two years as a drummer with Cajun fiddler, Doug Kershaw in the '70's. He was a staff writer at the L.A. office of Chappell Music." Radioation" is the third CD to date, recorded live on KUOW/NPR and KEXP in Seattle. "Songs of love and Doom" was the first with his band the Furnace, and guest performances by David Lanz on "Blue," and Etta James guitarist, Josh Sklair on, "I'm not part of the all." The CD was recorded in Seattle, L.A. and Melbourne Australia. "Dream Asylum" the second CD was co-produced with Matt Cameron, drummer for Soundgarden and Pearl Jam. In addition to his current band THEY, guest performances include Matt Cameron on "Dream Asylum" and "Them Against Us," Reggie Miles on saw ,and Aiko Shimada vocals on "We're The Prisoners". Mark Nichols wrote the string arrangement on the title track. Band members of "THEY" include: Dennis Rea guitar, Christine Gunn cello, Damien Aitken sax, Alicia Allen violin, Ollie Klomp drums, Tige De Coster bass, Hugh Sutton accordion, Tom Armstrong drums, Paul Beniot guitar, Fred Chalanor bass, Jim DeJoie clarinet, Jarrod Kaplan drums, and Jordan Ingram saxEric Apoe ,Seattle born songwriter worked two years as a drummer with Cajun fiddler, Doug Kershaw in the '70's. He was a staff writer at the L.A. office of Chappell Music." Radioation" is the third CD to date, recorded live on KUOW/NPR ,and KEXP in Seattle.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: