Flip Fly Productions. Since before the music degree, the MBA and the BS in audio production, his life was jazz. Twenty years of award-winning trombone and percussion sessions with Ginger Baker, Clyde Stubblefield and a few Jamaicans have congealed into a wonderboy with a portable studio and BMI's stamp of approval. His spun production and live PA sessions have been combined with visual/performance art collaborations for 5 years. Now, fluidsounds are responsible for tingly root chakras, sore knees and peeled minds all over the US and Europe. One project is never like the last. Next stop: film.
