contemporary Christian music. RE-IMAGINING HYMNS THROUGH MODERN SOUND Hymn Factory is a Christian music label and brand with a vision: to create the 21st century Christian hymn. The modern audience is hungry for real music that is melodious, full of color, and fresh. Like me, it wants great words partnered with aesthetically intelligent music that nourishes the soul and renews the spirit., says Patty Chung , the founder and composer of Hymn Factory. GUDE ME, Hymn Factorys first pop album, is a collection of melodious pop songs. The album showcases the fresh voice of newcomer Tim Walker whose expressive vocal quality draws easy comparisons to Chris Martin of Coldplay. Accompanying the vocals, Hymn Factorys band of acoustic jazz musicians deliver performance full of surprises and verve.

With every track boasting catchy hummable melodies that draw from such diverse influences as The Beatles, moody jazz/country and Norah Jones, the album harkens back the lost art of great songwriting.

Hymn Factory is an ambitious, rising music label and brand, aiming to deliver traditional hymn lyrics in a variety of exciting sounds. Whether it be a modern classical album, like SUN OF MY SOUL (released Oct 1, 2006), or a melodious pop album, like GUIDE ME, Hymn Factory is confident that it can deliver consistent artistic merit. Balancing impeccable musicianship with accessibility and creative ease, Hymn Factory is setting a new course in Christian music.
