FOLK: Traditional Folk, WORLD: Celtic Details: Men of Worth having been touring and recording for over 20 years. "The Pattern Dance" is their eighth recording. It is regarded as a superb blend of traditional and contemporary folk songs and tunes. Original compositions and carefully chosen covers by Scottish, Irish and American writers. Men of Worth Thank you so much for performing in our Mondays @ Monteith Concert Series. You have once again entertained our audience like no other performer has. Your humor, your musicianship, and your overall performance, attracted one of the biggest crowds that we have seen in this series. I have had many compliments about your show and requests to invite you back again. You are welcome in Albany any time!
