Sensual, romantic and vibrant bossa nova-inflected album comprises the soulfulness of both Brazilian and Cuban musical accents. The spellbinding melodies will captivate your heart and mind. A must-have gem in your collection! Some of the greatest names in contemporary Latin music took part in the creation of Rio Havana. Among them were Grammy award winner piano virtuoso, the founder of one of Cuba's well-known Latin jazz bands Irakere Chucho Valdes, a world-renowned Brazilian composer and truly a godfather of the bossa nova school of jazz, Grammy winner Joao Donato. Emilio Santiago who ranks among the top singers in Brazil, Leny Andrade, a foremost singer of Brazilian jazz and bossa nova and Wanda Sa with her enchanting velvet voice are both yet another contributors to perform Oleg Tumanov's music. Be it either Chucho Valdes performing Latin Romance, Wanda Sa with her soul-soothing Vestido de rei, Emilio Santiago spicing things up in Copacabana and others, every single one of them adds his/her own zing to the project. Oleg Tumanov is not merely a composer, he is a remarkable melodist that brings to life the romantic essence of Latin music. Rio Havana in its entirety represents the rebirth of musical traditions of lyricists like Barroso and Jobim. In a way, it symbolizes musical Renaissance where each affectionate bossa, lyrical samba and miraculous cha cha cha possesses its own unique character. Rio Havana is the album you will enjoy listening to over and over again!
