Acoustic pop with a folk element 12 MP3 Songs POP: 70's Pop, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: SONGS OF CONSOLATION-----NEW ALBUM FROM RNN JOHNSTON-----MARCH 2007 Rnn Johnston, also affectionately known as Rojo, has spent much of the past decade locked mole-like in studio, producing and writing material for other artists, and for TV, Film and Theatre. Now, he turns his hand to his first solo album, SONGS OF CONSOLATION, a collection of finely honed accoustic songs of kitchen dramas, of love, loss and household chores! Twice nominated for IFTAs (the Irish Oscars) for his soundtrack writing, Rnn has played piano, hammond B3 and Accordion with the Black Velvet Band (WEA recording artists), has been the main mover in 1990s and 2000s Gospel Act Emmaus (with whom he toured the US a number of times), and has been the producer and cowriter of Zig and Zags Never Mind the Zogabongs and five Dustin albums, with whom he also recorded Bob Geldof, Ronan Keating and others. He has also worked with their natural successors, Podge and Rodge. In Ireland, between albums and singles he has produced and written, he has scored more than 33 platinum discs over the past decade, and been reponsible for over 15 number 1s in the Irish territory. He composed the soundtrack for Over Ireland a highly acclaimed PBS TV special with an hours worth of music put to footage of Irelands great sights and landmarks, all shot from the air. In Ireland he is well known as the musical director of hit TV shows Youre a Star (Ireland's version of American Idol, now heading into its sixth season) and Irish Popstars in addition to being a host on long-running TV hit show, The Lyrics Board. In recent times, he has returned to his first love, writing songs about the ordinary stuff of life. On his new album, SONGS OF CONSOLATION, his wry sense of humour bristles on tracks like High while theres a natural exuberance just bursting forth in tracks like Call My Name and Overnight Mechanic. On SONGS OF CONSOLATION, Rnn joins artists like The Feeling, Jellyfish, and others displaying his love of all things sunny and west coast during the 1970s, while at the same time retaining an essential Celtiness on songs like Free? Rnn chose to call it SONGS OF CONSOLATION as much of the album was written following the untimely death of his mother from an MRSA in a Dublin hospital two years ago. Despite well over a decade in the business, this is his first solo offering. He is married to Joanne (also his beautiful backing vocalist on this album!) and they have two children Naoise (5) and Sin (2), and they live in County Wicklow, Ireland.
