This captivating collection of original songs in a folk/pop and often quirky style is carried out by a stellar cast of players. Sarah's poetic lyrics and pure voice communicate innocence and inspiringly optimistic themes. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Quirky Details: It all began on the tropical island of Serendipity where a baby was born. This baby learned to coo to the swell of the dolphin filled waters, the warm gentle breezes through the palms and to the myriad of birds dwelling in the garden. She ate hot curries from her nanny, Soma's plate and studied the playful nature of shadows and light from her crib. This baby's name was Sarah Marshall who is now a woman continuing her passionate journey through art and music. This CD 'All The Dreamers' is a culmination of her adventure so far...The song 'Underwater' appeared in the award winning movie 'Moving Malcolm' in 2003 and 'This Young Man' was the most requested song of 2003 on the National CBC program 'Richardson's Roundup'. Songs from 'All The Dreamers' receive regular airplay on CBC, BBC Scotland as well as 18+ college stations across Canada. Sarah is surrounded by a galaxy of stellar players from Vancouver, BC where she now happily resides with her husband/producer Budge Schachte. Musicians on the album are Nick Apivor, Phil Robertson, Chris Trinidad, Cameron Wilson, Finn Manniche, Tony Nickells, Douglas Schmidt, Geoffrey Kelly, Brad Muirhead, Chris Startup and that dynamic duo Budge and Sarah. Sarah and her magnificent team are currently performing concerts as well as creating the next album with the intention of a March 21st, 2008 release. This up and coming artist is now writing her first novel among other quirky projects. To see what else Sarah is up to visit her website @ sarahmarshall.ca!
