Cabaret/pop at its best - clear, intricate and rich arrangements musically and vocally with a diverse range of songs - a treasure box indeed. 15 MP3 Songs POP: Euro-Pop, EASY LISTENING: Cabaret Show all album songs: Treasure Box Songs Details: This is Tracey's second CD - it really is a treasure box of beautiful, melodic songs, written in collaboration with Wim Oudijk and Frieda Gerhart. It creates a feeling of breeziness and inspiration using rich, imaginative music sprinkled with musical gems and thought-provoking lyrics. There are stories (Isabella's song, So much love), tales of fantasy (Welcome to my dream) and love (Peculiar affair, Love and fear), as well as reminiscing (Cafe days) , a giggle at the rigors of western society (In the burbs) and some philosophical soul-searching (Signs, No rhyme or reason, On and on). The sky features very deliberately as a theme - definitely to be listened to with a comfy chair and a glass of wine. "Treasure Box is a surprise! I enjoy the rich inner space which these songs inhabit - aspirations, relationships and some gentle lifestyle satire. Text and music blend lyrically while Tracey Roberts' warm voice amplifies the subtlety of the moods which are enhanced by imaginative harmonies and arrangements." Tim O'Connor, Encore Entertainment
